

Oakville & District Kennel Club

proudly presents:

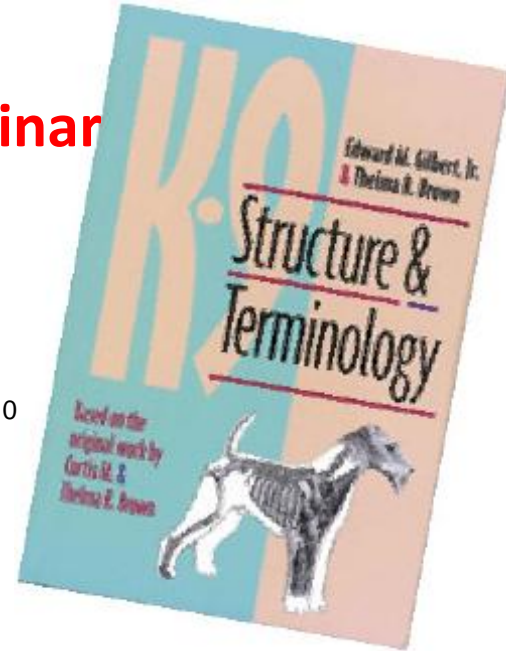

Gilbert's K-9 Structure & Movement Seminar The Dynamics of Canine Locomotion

Emphasis is on breed specific movement as a part of breed type.

Day 1 - 8 hours on Canine Structure and Movement in PowerPoint presentation.

Day 2 – Covers 4 hours on Movement including a video in PowerPoint and 4 hours on 10 different breed specific hands-on evaluations of movement.

Ed Gilbert is an internationally recognized author and speaker on canine structure and movement as well as an AKC judge

February 25th & 26th, 2012

9-5 each day

at

Boyne Community Centre

2287 Britannia Road (just east of Regional Road 25) Milton, Ontario

Location Sponsored by:

Cost - $200 including HST for 2 Day seminar (includes lunch and snacks both days)

Registration is limited to the first 50 paid registrants

Draw prizes and participant gift bags have been generously provided by:

For further information Lorrie 519-833-7319 e-mail linda.brennan@td.com

Mail reservations along with cheque for $200 (made payable to Oakville and District Kennel Club) to:

Lorrie Brennan, R.R. #5 4986 Tenth Line Erin Georgetown, ON L7G 4S8

Name: _____ e-mail: _____

Address: _____ City: _____

Postal Code: _____ Phone: (_____) _____ # of years in dogs _____

Breed(s) of dogs currently owned: _____

Would you be interested in bringing a dog for the hands-on portion of the second day*? Y / N

*We will contact potential attendees to confirm the participation of their dog in the seminar. Please wait for confirmation before bringing your dog.